

Alternative Retail Model Catalogue

The food and grocery retail market—that is to say, the industrial complex encompassing the sale and consumption of all nonservice-oriented food and beverage items—has undergone a series of rapid and continuous transitions over the past several decades. The table provided herein catalogues 93 unique and emergent retail models that have demonstrated promise in their ability to improve household access to healthy foods and build communities around growers, sellers, and buyers.

Last updated February 28, 2020

Name	Scope	Location	Retail Category	Community Environment	Model Description	Affiliate(s)	Contact	Website
Adams County Farmers Market	County-wide	Adams County, PA	Farm stand Nutrition incentive program	Urban	The Adams County Farmers Market Association hosts a pop-up that is meant to assist consumers in obtaining fresh produce while also strengthening community ties between growers and buyers. The market also participates in an EBT Double Dollars Program, providing SNAP recipients with $2 of tokens for every $1 charged.	Adams County Farmers Market Association Adams County Food Policy Council Destination Gettysburg Farmers Market Coalition	Market Manager Reza Djalal adamscountyfresh@gmail.com	http://www.acfarmersmarkets.org/
Agriculture Supported Communities (ASC)	County-wide	Lehigh and Berks Counties, PA	Farm share program	Urban	ASC is a farm share program that offers a weekly selection of fresh, seasonal, and organic produce locally grown produce to families living in the Lehigh and Berks County areas. Members can pay week-to-week, compared to the upfront payment models that are characteristics of traditional CSA models, and SNAP recipients can use federal SNAP dollars to claim discounted shares.	Rodale Institute	Program Manager Lynda Prim lynda.prim@rodaleinstitute.org	https://rodaleinstitute.org/our-work/agriculture-supported-communities/
Arcadia's Mobile Market	Municipal	Washington, DC	Social justice-oriented	Urban	These farm-stands-on-wheels improve community access to healthy and affordable food by distributing locally and sustainably sourced produce to underserved communities in the Washington, DC area. In addition to leveraging the “Bonus Bucks” program to double the purchasing power of federal nutrition assistance programs, the markets also provide consumers with educational resources related to nutrition and food preparation.	Arcadia Center for Sustainable Food and Agriculture	Mobile Market Director Erin Close erin@arcadiafood.org	http://arcadiafood.org/programs/mobile-market
Arvada's Veggie Van	Municipal	Arvada, CO	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Veggie Van is a street-legal electric vehicle that supports local growers by broadening demand for and access to fresh produce. The rounds are made late in the afternoon on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Sundays, and accepts both SNAP and Double Up payments.	Ride Provide, Inc. City of Arvada, Jefferson County Public Health LiveWell Colorado	General Manager Shelly Cook info@arvadaveggievan.com (720) 935-9224	http://arvadaveggievan.com/index.html

Baltimarket Virtual Supermarket Program	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	Baltimarket, generally, refers to a suite of community-based approach to improve food access and promote health to transform the urban food retail environment. The Virtual Supermarket Program, specifically, seeks to address the issues associated with healthy food priority areas by using an online grocery delivery service to bring food to neighborhoods with low vehicle ownership.	Baltimore City Health Department American Heart Association No Boundaries Coalition	Food Access and Nutrition Manager JaSina Wise jassina.wise@baltimorecity.gov (410) 396-8951	https://health.baltimorecity.gov/programs/food-access
Baltimore Free Farm	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Community garden	Urban	Baltimore Free Farm is a collective of community advocates that leverage public resources, like community gardens and kitchens, to improve urban access to healthy foods.	Baltimore Food Alliance	TJ Butler collective@baltimorefreefarm.org	https://www.baltimorefreefarm.org/
Black Urban Gardeners and Farmers of Pittsburgh Co-op (BUGS)	Municipal	Pittsburgh, PA	Social justice-oriented Cooperatively owned	Urban	A farm and retail co-op established to address food apartheid by mitigating racial discrepancies in food access in the black urban neighborhoods of Pittsburgh through farmer's markets and free food distribution.	The Pittsburgh Foundation	Founder and Executive Director Raqueeb Bey blackfarmerscroop@gmail.com	https://bugfpc.com/
Bloom Community Farm & The Hope Garden	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Community garden	Rural	The Bloom Community Farm and The Hope Garden recognize healthy food access as a human right and use shared growing spaces to improve community to healthy foods.	The Hunger Coalition	Food Production Manager Lynea Petty lpetty@thehungercoalition.org (208) 788-0121	https://thehungercoalition.org/community-engagement/farm-garden/
Bloom Mobile Market	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Farm share program	Rural	The Bloom Mobile Market brings pop-up farm stands, which are led by Bloom Youth Project interns, to sell produce and scratch-made meals at discounted rates for underserved individuals.	The Hunger Coalition	Bloom Youth Project Supervisor Megan Schooley mschooley@thehungercoalition.org (208) 788-0121	https://thehungercoalition.org/healthy-food-access/fresh-food-markets/
Bondadosa	Municipal	Denver, CO	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	Bondadosa is a grocery delivery service that uses a bilingual logistical platform to connect local producers with consumers. In addition to accepting SNAP benefits, all participating members can make payments upon delivery with cash, check, credit or debit on their selected day of preference.	Colorado Fresh Food Financing Fund (CO4F) Kenneth King Foundation The Denver Foundation Works of Kindness	Founder and CEO Ricardo Rocha hola@bondadosa.org (720) 593-6978	https://bondadosa.org/

Boston Double Up Food Bucks	Municipal	Boston, MA	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	Boston Double Up Food Bucks is a SNAP incentive program that stretches the value of federal SNAP dollars by allowing recipients to purchase more fruits and vegetables at participating corner stores and non-profit groceries. In particular, when SNAP recipients use their EBT card, they can receive dollar-to-dollar matches for up to $10 each day.	Mayor's Office of Food Access	Project Manager Stephanie Voltaire food@boston.gov  (617) 635-3717	https://www.boston.gov/departments/food-access/boston-double-food-bucks
Bozeman Co-op	Municipal	Bozeman, MT	Cooperatively owned	Urban	The Bozeman Co-op is a local, independent, cooperatively owned grocery that is committed to practicing sustainable business operations and giving back to local organizations. IN particular, their EATS Programs helps low-income members eat with a 15 percent discount.	N/A	President Susan Quarles  (406) 587-4039	https://www.bozo.coop/
Bronson Market	Municipal	Kalamazoo, MI	Micro-grocery  Nutrition incentive program	Urban	This unique access point, which is located on the south campus of Bronson Methodist Hospital in downtown Kalamazoo, offers patients, visitors, and hospital employees a location to purchase locally grown produce in the promotion of a healthy workplace and community. The grocery also accepts federal SNAP dollars and has an online platform in the works.	Bronson Healthcare	N/A	https://www.bronsonhealth.com/news/micro-grocery-store-coming-to-bronson-methodist-hospital-south-c/
Catawba Fresh Market	Municipal	Catawba, SC	Technology-assisted  Mobile delivery and pop-up	Rural	The Catawba Fresh Market is an online farmers market and regional delivery service that was made in association with Catawba Farm and Food Coalition (CFFC). Customers who place orders on their digital platform are then responsible for picking up their produce during a designated window.	Catawba Farm and Food Coalition  Clemson University Cooperative Extension	Board of Director and Community Volunteer Gloria Kellerhals  gloriak2001@gmail.com	https://buylocalfoodnow.com/
Central Brooklyn Food Co-op (CBFC)	Municipal	New York City, NY	Cooperatively owned  Social justice-oriented	Urban	The CBFC was created out of a desire to address food injustice and food apartheid in Central Brooklyn, specifically in the Bedford-Stuyvesant, North Crown Heights area. The co-op is currently incubated by a community organizing group, the Brooklyn Movement Center and is a 100% working member-owned and operated food store. Their mission is to utilize their shared assets to ensure access to affordable and fresh food with the mostly-of-color, low- and moderate-income communities of Central Brooklyn.	Brooklyn Movement Center	Food Justice Organizer Raina Kennedy  rkennedy@brooklynmovementcenter.org	http://cbfood.org

Cherry Hill Food Co-op	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Cooperatively owned Social justice-oriented	Urban	The Cherry Hill Food Co-op is an emerging cooperative venture in South Baltimore with the mission of improving access to healthy, affordable, and culturally appropriate foods. By establishing a member-owned and community-controlled grocery store, the co-op is committed to shifting the way food access work is approached in low-income, black communities in Baltimore City.	N/A	Eric Jackson	https://www.facebook.com/CherryHillFoodCoop/
Cincinnati COOKS!	Municipal	Cincinnati, OH	Culinary training program	Urban	Cincinnati COOKS! is a free 10-week training program meant for under- and unemployed individuals in the Greater Cincinnati. In addition to teaching students the mechanics of a commercial kitchen, the program has the larger mission of shortening the food insecurity line by addressing the more immediate issue of poverty. Furthermore, meals prepared during the training are served to Kids Café, an afterschool feeding program for school-age children.	Freestore Foodbank	Staff Assistant Rajani Menon rmenon@freestorefoodbank.org	https://freestorefoodbank.org/cincinnati-cooks/
Cincinnati Gives a Crock	Municipal	Cincinnati, OH	Culinary training program	Urban	The Cincinnati Gives a Crock program provides culinary training, rescued produce, and donated cookware to students who can then take home completed dishes for their families. Headed by Carolyn Collette, the classes currently take place at 5 different locations throughout the city.	LaSoupe Cincy Good Food Fund Greater Cincinnati Regional Food Policy Council	Cincinnati Gives a Crock Instructor Carolyn Collette carolyn@lasoupe.org	https://lasoupe.org/cincinnati-gives-a-crock
CitySeed's Farmers' Market	Municipal	New Haven, CT	Mobile delivery and pop-up Nutrition incentive program	Urban	CitySeed operates a year-round farmers market throughout the city of New Haven. Their markets provide vital economic opportunities for regional farmers in the area. Furthermore, thanks to their partnership with Wholesome Wave, CitySeed offers double value for SNAP at all of its market locations, matching up to $10 per day fruits, vegetables, and seedlings.	CitySeed	Market Manager Erin Carey erin.carey@cityseed.org	http://cityseed.org/farmers-market/

Common Ground's Mobile Market	Municipal	New Haven, CT	Mobile delivery and pop-up Farm share Nutrition incentive program	Urban	The Mobile Market, which has been in operation since 2012, is a farm stand that brings fresh produce from Connecticut Farms to New Haven neighborhoods. In particular, the market prioritizes increasing healthy food access for low-income residents and seniors. The produce is either grown on Common Ground's own ¾-acre farm or is sourced from other regional growers. The operation is made possible by student workers from the Green Jobs Corps Program, a youth employment and leadership development initiative that links students with paid and meaningful work. Due to their connections with CitySeed, they are also able to match every federal SNAP dollar for up to $10.	Common Ground High School, Urban Farm, and Environmental Center  CitySeed	Farm Director Deborah Greig  debroah.greig@nhelp.com	http://commongroundct.org/mon-ground-mobile-market/
Cultiva La Salud		Central Valley, CA	Mobile delivery and pop-up		Despite being one of the largest and richest agricultural regions in the world, poverty-driven obesity and food insecurity is one of the largest issues facing the Central Valley. Cultiva La Salud is a grassroots initiative that is dedicated to creating health equity in the Central Valley by supporting healthy eating and active living. In particular, by partnering with schools and communities, Cultiva La Salud hopes to improve access to healthy foods and beverages by providing pop-up farm stands in disadvantaged areas.	Public Health Institute	Program Director Genoveva Islas  genoveva@culturalasalud.org  (559) 498-0870 ext. 101	http://www.culturalasalud.org/
DMG Foods	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Culinary training program	Urban	A non-profit grocery store in northeast Baltimore that provides healthy and affordable foods and expand the power of food stamp dollars through nutrition and smart spending education. The retailer also provides social service offerings and skilled workforce training opportunities.	Maryland Hunger Solutions  Maryland Food Bank  Johns Hopkins University  France-Merrick Foundation	(410) 505-0400
Double Up Bucks	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Nutrition incentive program	Rural	A collaboration between the Hunger Coalition and the Wood River Farmers' Market, the Double Up Bucks program allows SNAP recipients to receive an addition $20 when they spend $20 on their EBT or SNAP cards. The program is allowed at both Ketchum Farmers' Market, which operates on Tuesdays, and Hailey Farmers' Market, which operates on Thursdays.	The Hunger Coalition	Development & Program Supervisor Krista Felton kfelton@thehungercoalition.org  (208) 788-0121	https://thehungercoalition.org/healthy-food-access/farmers-markets-double-up-bucks/

Double Up Food Bucks	State-wide	CO	Nutrition incentive program		The Double Up Food Bucks program doubles the value of federal nutrition benefits that are spent at participating markets and food retail stores across the state. The object of the program is to improve individuals' access to healthy fruits and vegetables while also supporting local growers.	LiveWell Colorado	Double Up Statewide Manager Amy Nelms amynelms@livewell.org	www.doubleupcolorado.org
Double Up Food Bucks Program	County-wide	Boulder County, CO	Technology-assisted Nutrition incentive program Farm share program	Urban	Funded through Boulder's sugar-sweetened beverage tax, the Double Up Food Bucks Program allows eligible recipient to use EBT cards at participating farmers markets in Boulder, Lafayette, Longmont, Nederland. In particular, cardholders can buy SNAP-eligible and receive 1 Double Up Food Buck for up to $40.	Boulder County Public Health	Healthy Food Access Coordinator Jill Strange jstrange@bouldercounty.org  (303) 441-1330	bouldercountydoubleup.org
Eat Real Food Mobile Market	Municipal	Lehigh Valley, PA	Nutrition education Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Eat Real Food Mobile Market is an initiative that provides low-cost fruits and vegetables and free nutrition education in areas without easy access to supermarkets.	Kellyn Foundation  Two Rivers Health and Wellness Foundation	Founder Eric Ruth eric@kellynfoundation.org  (610) 730-8860	http://www.kellyn.org/kellyn-mobile-market.html
Edinboro Market	Municipal	Edinboro, PA	Other	Urban	Edinboro Market is a non-profit organization that promotes access to locally grown foods in the town of Edinboro. The market also provides incubator space to local growers and farmers interested in testing and improving new products and building marketing skills.	Edinboro Market	President Marti Martz edinboromarket@gmail.com  (814) 449-6045	https://edinboromarket.business.site/
Everytable	Municipal	Los Angeles, LA	Food stand	Urban	Everytable is a corporation that hopes to change the food retail landscape by increasing the availability of their small, grab-and-go storefronts, which carry nutritious and fresh food at fast-food prices. They are located in underserved communities and affluent areas in Los Angeles areas alike.	Feast	Feast Founder Sam Polk hi@everytable.com	https://www.everytable.com/
Fair Share	Municipal	Madison, WI	Farm share program Nutrition incentive program	Urban	Farmshare is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that connects farmers and consumers through Community Supported Agriculture. In particular, they have a platform that identifies local, organic CSA farms and also provides educational workshops and resources for farmers. Through the Partner Shares Program, they are also able to accept and provide financial and nutritional assistance to low-income households.	Aprilaire  Edible Madison  Heartland Credit Union	Executive Director Carrie Sedlak carrie@csacoalition.org	https://www.csacoalition.org/

Farm Fresh Food Boxes	Municipal	Seattle, WA	Farm share program Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	Through the Farm Fresh Food Boxes program, weekly shipments of farmer-selected produce are sent to retail sites across Seattle. Through this service, customers are able to pre-order produce boxes either at the retail site or online on a week-to-week basis, improving their access to healthy food while also strengthening the economic base of rural growers.	Washington State University Extension	Food Access Specialist Diane Smith diane.smith@wsu.edu (360) 428-4270	https://news.wsu.edu/tag/farm-fresh-food-box/
Farm Fresh RI	Municipal	Pawtucket, RI	Culinary training program Mobile delivery and pop-up Farm stand	Urban	Farm Fresh RI is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that is dedicated to increasing community access to local foods and building strong local food system enterprises. In particular, they have adopted a 50 by 60 vision, which includes the goal of building the capacity for the New England area to produce 50 percent of its own food by 2060. The organization provides nutrition education, culinary job training, and hosts farmers markets in underserved neighborhoods.	New England Food Vision	Executive Director of Community Access Sheri Griffin sheri@farmfreshri.org	https://www.farmfreshri.org/programs/harvest-kitchen/caf/
Farmhouse Market	Municipal	New Prague, MN	Technology-assisted	Rural	The Farmhouse Market is a membership-based retail store that is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It utilizes a keycard entry system, in combination with a self-checkout scheme, to allow Farmhouse patrons to purchase fresh produce from local farmers and food producers at any time of day throughout the year. Interestingly, the space they use doubles as an inn.	N/A	Paul and Kendra Rasmusson farmhousemarketnp@gmail.com	https://farmhousemarketnp.com/about/
Food on the Move	State-wide	RI	Mobile delivery and pop-up Nutrition incentive program		A product of the Rhode Island Public Health Institute, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, the Food on the Move program is mobile food truck and grocery distribution service that provides fruits and vegetables to areas with limited access to fresh produce. As part of their mission, the food is also offered at a 50% discount year-round to all products purchased with federal SNAP dollars.	Rhode Island Public Health Institute	Food Access Coordinator Eliza Cohen eliza.dexter.cohoen@riphi.org (401) 288-1956	https://riphi.org/food-on-the-move/

Fresh Access Bucks	State-wide	FL	Nutrition incentive program		Fresh Access Bucks (FAB) is an initiative that seeks to make produce more affordable and accessible for low-income families, all while supporting local growers and enhancing the surrounding economy. FAB increases the purchasing power of SNAP by providing a one-to-one match for Florida-grown fruits and vegetables. A SNAP recipient who spends $40 of their SNAP benefits at a participating FAB outlet receives an additional $40 to purchase fresh, local produce. FAB strategically partners with farmers markets, farm stands, and mobile market that are located in and around food deserts, low-income communities, and along transportation routes.	Feeding Florida	Fresh Access Bucks Program Manager Katie Delaney katie@feedingflorida.org  (904) 612-1007	www.freshaccessbucks.com
Fresh Approach	Municipal	San Francisco, CA	Nutrition assistance incentive program Mobile delivery and pop-up Community garden Nutrition education	Urban	Fresh Approach is a 501(c)3 non-profit that connects California communities with healthy food from California farmers. They also provide nutrition education during their Veggie Rx classes, distribute vouchers that can be used at farmers markets and mobile market trucks, and provide 50% discounts for patrons receiving public benefits, like Medical or CalFresh. Lastly, the group also owns and operates a community garden in East Palo Alto.	Fresh Approach Kaiser Permanente Santa Clara County Public Health USDA The Grove Foundation Patagonia Costco	Nutrition Program Coordinator and Food Access Coordinator Samiha Hamdi  samihahamdi@freshapproach.org  (765) 586-3610	https://www.freshapproach.org/
Fresh at the Avenue	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Social justice-oriented Nutrition incentive program	Urban	Fresh at the Avenue is a community-led produce stall that is stationed in a low-income community in West Baltimore. More specifically, the program offers a Double Dollars match for EBT customers who spend at least $10. All produce are grown locally, typically from the Strength to Love II or Whitlock Community Farm.	No Boundaries Coalition of Central West Baltimore	Director of Health and Food Justice Sache Jones  (443) 675-6893	https://noboundariescoalition.com/
Fresh Food Bucks and Healthy Corner Stores	Municipal	Lehigh Valley, PA	Consumer education Nutrition incentive program	Urban	This initiative offers nutrition education for corner store owners in low-income communities. The corner stores are identified and encouraged to add at least four healthy food items to their store inventory after staff members conduct an inventory assessment. Afterwards, a follow-up assessment is performed to make sure store owners are compliant.	Lehigh Valley Health Network	Director of Health Advocacy & Policy Dr. Cathy Coyne  cathy_a.coyne@lvhn.org  (484) 862-3552	http://www.lvfreshfoodbucks.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/05/2018-FFB-Annual-Report.pdf

Fresh for Less	Municipal	Austin, TX	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	Fresh for Less is an initiative that brings fresh, affordable, convenient, and nutritious foods to underserved Austin neighborhoods. A collaborative effort between the City of Austin, Farmshare Austin, and the Sustainable Food Center, it uses mobile market and healthy corner store approaches to improve individuals' access to fresh produce. The mobile markets also employ a Double Up Food Bucks program that increases the purchasing power of Lone Star card recipients.	Austin Public Health Farmshare Austin City of Austin Sustainable Food Center	Program Coordinator Estephanie Olivares estephanie.olivares@cityofaustin.gov (512) 972-6769	https://austintexas.gov/freshforless
Fresh Stop Market	Municipal	New Orleans, LA	Nutrition incentive program Farm stand	Urban	The Fresh Stop Market is a retail market overseen by Sankofa Community Development Corporation. Located in the Lower Ninth Ward Area of New Orleans, it is a food hub that operates year-round, sourcing locally sources produce, eggs, and seafood.	Sankofa Community Development Corporation	Founder and Executive Director Rashida Ferdinand info@sankofanola.org (504) 872-9214	http://sankofanola.org/food-access/
Fresh Stop Markets	Municipal	Louisville, KY	Mobile delivery and pop-up Farm share program	Urban	Fresh Stop Markets (FSMs) is a project of New Roots, a non-profit organization interested in building the Louisville community's capacity to access fresh foods. In this program, shareholders commit to pay for a share of produce on an income-based sliding scale and are then tasked with picking up their seasonal, local, organic produce at one of their 7 different pop-up locations in the Louisville area.	New Roots	Karyn Mosowitz kary.mosowitz@newroots.org (502) 509-6770; ext. 703	https://newroots.org/fresh-stop-markets/
Fruit and Vegetable Bucks	County-wide	Adams County, PA	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	Fruit and Vegetable Bucks are meant to assist Adams County residents who receive SNAP assistance to purchase additional fruits and vegetables, specifically by providing recipients with a 50% discount on their five most expensive purchases each day at Kennie's Markets in Gettysburg and Biglerville from January through April each year.	Adams County Food Policy Council	Kim Davidson adamsfoodpolicy@gmail.com (713) 337-6490	https://www.adamsfoodpolicy.org/fruit-and-veg-bucks
Gather Baltimore	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Food recovery program	Urban	Gather Baltimore is volunteer-based group located in Baltimore City that focuses on reducing wasted food by collecting unsold fruits and vegetables and redistributing those foods to the Baltimore community at food pantries, shelters, and community organizations.	N/A	(443) 990-1627	https://www.facebook.com/GatherBaltimore/

Gleaning	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Food recovery program	Rural	The Gleaning Program allows volunteers to harvest extra fruits from the trees of local growers.	The Hunger Coalition	Volunteer & Program Manager Rachel Shinn rshinn@thehungercoalition.org  (208) 788-0121	https://thehungercoalition.org/act/food-drives/
GoFarm	State-wide	CO	Mobile delivery and pop-up  Farm share program	Urban	GoFarm is a nonprofit whose mission is to increase the supply of and access to affordable, fresh, healthy, local food in the state of Colorado. GoFarm has three active division, which include a local food share program, which is modeled after a multi-farm CSA, a community access program, which distributes produce to low-income communities, and a farmer assistance program, which involves an educational and incubator services.	Colorado Native Golden Civic Foundation Hunger Free Golden The Colorado Health Foundation Jefferson County Colorado	CEO and Founder Eileen O'Rourke  eileen@gofarmcoop.org  (720) 580-3276	https://www.gofarmcoop.org/
Good Food Bus	Municipal	Lewiston, Auburn, Bath, and Lisbon, ME	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Good Food Bus is a mobile market initiative that creates access to good food by improving and innovating upon the concept of a traditional brick and mortar store to bring fresh produce to underserved communities with poor access.	Cultivating Community St. Mary's Nutrition Center Healthy Food Fund Harvard Pilgrim Healthcare Foundation	Food Access Specialist Kathleen McKersie  kathleen@cultivatingcommunity.org  (207) 632-9740	https://www.goodfoodbus.org/
Good Food Markets	Municipal	Washington, D.C.	Other	Urban	Good Food Markets is a for-profit grocer that is dedicated to developing retail solutions that work in and for food desert communities. More specifically, it is a full-service retailer located in the Woodridge neighborhood that provides the surrounding community with fresh quality produce and healthy grab-and-go options.	City First Enterprises Boston Medical Center Share our Strength Enterprise	(202) 248-8494	http://www.goodfoodmarkets.com/
Good Food Sold Here	State-wide	MN	Technical assistance and advisory  Nutrition education	Urban and Rural	The Good Food Sold Here (GFSH) is a partnership between the small store owners, local public health agencies, and the Minnesota Department of Health (MDH). The goal of GFSH is to increase the availability of healthy options by changing the placement and promotion of products at retail outlets.	Minnesota Department of Health	health.healthyeating@state.mn.us	https://www.health.state.mn.us/communities/healthyeating/goodfood.html

Good Food Truck	Municipal	Burlington, VT	Mobile delivery and pop-up Culinary training program	Urban	The Good Food Truck is a program of Feeding Chittenden that provides free meals to low-income communities and education for cooks trying to enter the workforce.	Feeding Chittenden	(802) 658-7939 ext. 34	http://goodfoodtruckvt.org/
Grow-Op	Municipal	Erie, PA	Cooperatively owned	Urban	The Whole Foods Co-op in Erie allows local farmers and backyard gardeners to sell produce in their full-service retail location. The group has the more ambitious and long-term vision to develop an urban agriculture internship program that would allow those interested in growing food in the city to learn critical business skills.	Whole Foods Co-op National Co-op Grocers	Lauren Zotea lazotea@eriecountypa.gov (814) 451-6548	https://wfce.erie.coop/grow-op
Healthy Corner Store Initiative	Municipal	Erie, PA	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	The Erie County Department of Health offered a five-year grant-funded program to supply grocers and corner stores with funds and technical assistance to offer produce, increase SNAP use, and offer healthier alternatives to commonly sold foods.	Erie County Department of Health	Lauren Zotea azotea@eriecountypa.gov (814) 451-6548	https://www.eriecountypa.gov/community-services/health-department/news/community-gardens-and-farmers-markets.aspx
Healthy Corner Store Initiative (HCSI)	County-wide	Erie County, New York	Mobile delivery and pop-up Nutrition education		The HCSI is a collaborative partnership between the Erie County Cooperative Extension of Cornell and the Mobile Safety Net Team of the John R. Oishei Foundation that hopes to increase access to fresh, healthy foods. In particular, the concept incentivizes store owners and community members to procure and consume fresh produce by stocking fresh produce at local retailers and providing nutrition education.	Cornell Cooperative Extension John R. Oishei Foundation	HSCI Coordinator Sheila Bass sab69@cornell.edu	http://erie.ce.cornell.edu/healthy-corner-store-initiative

Healthy Corner Store Project	Municipal	Washington, DC	Social justice-oriented	Urban	The Healthy Corners program is a pioneering venture that is expanding healthy food access in DC's food deserts by delivering fresh produce and healthy snacks to corner stores in DC's low-income communities. More specifically, these products are offered at wholesale prices and in small quantities than convention distributors, allowing them to sell the produce at below-market prices. By manipulating distribution, this program is able to empower small corner stores in under-resourced DC neighborhoods to stock and sell fresh, nutritious food.	DC Central Kitchen DC Health	Director of Food Access and Education Laura Belazis lbelazis@dccentralkitchen.org
Healthy Corner Stores Initiative	Municipal	Philadelphia, PA	Nutrition incentive program Consumer education	Urban	The Healthy Corner Store Initiative is a product of The Food Trust that supports corner store owners that are committed to making healthy changes for their customers and their businesses. In partnership with the Philadelphia Department of Public Health's Get Healthy Philly Initiative, the program has grown to a citywide network that provides training, technical assistance, and infrastructure change to increase healthy food inventory and provide consumer education in corner stores.	The Food Trust Philadelphia Department of Public Health	contact@thefoodtrust.org (215) 575-0444 http://thefoodtrust.org/what-we-do/corner-store
Healthy Incentive Program	Municipal	Boston, MA	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	In Massachusetts, all SNAP recipients are eligible to participate in the Healthy Incentives Program (HIP), which allows consumers to receive an instant, dollar-for-dollar match on EBT card purchases on fresh fruits and vegetables.	Mayor's Office of Food Access	Project Manager Stephanie Voltaire food@boston.gov (617) 635-3717 https://www.boston.gov/departments/food-initiatives/healthy-incentives-program
Healthy Options	County-wide	Adams County, PA	Nutrition incentive program Nutrition education	Urban	Healthy Options is a program of the Adams County Food Policy Council that offers educational activities and year-round vouchers to be used at select food retailers. In 2019, specifically, $45 were given to 120 families and 60 senior citizens thanks, in part, to a grant and fundraising campaign provided by the Gettysburg Hospital Foundation, the Wellspan Healthy Employee Giving Campaign, and community fundraising efforts.	Adams County Food Policy Council Gettysburg Hospital Foundation Wellspan Healthy Employee Giving Campaign Gettysburg College	Adams County Food Policy Chair Kim Davidson adamsfoodpolicy@gmail.com (713) 337-6490 https://www.adamsfoodpolicy.org/healthy-options

Hub City Farmers Market	Municipal	Spartanburg, SC	Nutrition incentive program Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	Hub City Farmers Market is a non-profit committed to increasing the supply, demand, and access of healthy, local food in Spartanburg. In addition to operating a weekly farmers' market at and a mobile market, they also offer a double SNAP program that increases the value of federal nutrition assistance programs.	Northside Park	Program Coordinator Jamie Gibson jgibson@hubcityfarm.org	https://www.hubcityfarm.org/
Hungry Harvest	Municipal	Baltimore, MD	Mobile delivery and pop-up Food recovery	Urban	Hungry Harvest is an online retailer that delivers rescued produce, both to reduce food waste and improve access to healthy good. While the enterprise began in Baltimore, it now provides doorstep delivery to other large metropolitan areas, including Washington, DC, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chapel Hill, and Charlotte.	Whole 30 Quaker American Heart Association James Beard Foundation	CEO and Founder Evan Lutz	https://www.hungryharvest.net/
Kitsap Fresh	County-wide	Mason, Kitsap, Jefferson and Clallam Counties, WA	Nutrition incentive program Technology assisted Mobile delivery and pop-up Cooperatively owned	Mostly rural	Kitsap Fresh is a cooperatively owned online retail space that provides a marketplace for local growers and producers to sell fresh fruits and vegetables to nearby consumers.	Kitsap Public Health District Washington State University Extension	Assistant Professor Laura Ryser laura.ryser@wsu.edu	https://kitsapfresh.org/
Kitsap Harvest Glean Team	County-wide	Kitsap County, WA	Food recovery	Urban	The Kitsap Harvest Glean Team is a county-wide program that pairs volunteers with landowners who have extra produce and fruit to harvest that would otherwise go to waste. The primary goal of the program is to get the recovered food into the hands of food access programs that provide food to underserved communities.	Kitsap Public Health District and Washington State University Extension	Director of Washington State University Kitsap County Extension Laura Ryser laura.ryser@wsu.edu	http://www.volunteerkitsap.org/news/detail/?news_id=358474
La Montañita Co-op	Municipal	Albuquerque, NM	Cooperatively owned	Urban	This co-op is New Mexico's largest community-owned natural foods market. The co-op is most focused on increasing access to, and purchases of, healthy foods, promoting regenerative agriculture efforts, and positively contributing to the local economy.	The Foodshed Project	Board Member Liz Davenport talkwiththeboard@lamountanita.coop	https://lamountanita.coop/

Lansing Mobile Farmers Market (MFM)	County-wide	Lansing, MI	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Lansing MFM is a program of Northwest Initiative, a local non-profit dedicated to serving low-income residents in Lansing, MI. It was started to help alleviate the food insecurity burden in Lansing's underserved neighborhoods and food deserts. The program sells affordable and healthy produce, honey, maple syrup, and baked goods to residents living in low-income housing complexes and community centers.	NorthWest Initiative Capital Area Food Council Ingham County Health Department Michigan Farmers Market Association Tri-county Office on Aging	Executive Director Peggy Vaughn-Payne peggy@nwlansing.org	www.facebook.com/lansingmobilefarmmarket/
LEAP Mobile Market	Municipal	Roanoke, VA	Mobile delivery and pop-up Nutrition incentive program	Urban	The LEAP Mobile Market brings locally grown, healthy, and fresh food to Roanoke neighborhoods without easy access to fresh produce. Each of the stops made on the route are open to the public, with vendors accepting cash, debit, and EBT. Importantly, all LEAP Mobile Market stops provide double benefits, both for SNAP recipients and Medicaid members.	Local Environmental Agriculture Project (LEAP) Roanoke Co-op Freedom First James Madison University	Director of Programs and Operations Sam Lev sam@leapforlocalfoods.org (540) 632-1360	https://leapforlocalfoods.org/market/mobile/
Lehigh Valley Fresh Food Bucks	Municipal	Lehigh Valley, PA	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	Lehigh Valley Fresh Food Bucks is a program that provides matching funds of up to $10 each day for individuals using SNAP benefits to buy more local fruits and vegetables at farmers markets, farm stands, or other retail models available in the Lehigh Valley area, including the Eat Real Food Mobile Market and neighborhood corner stores.	Buy Fresh Buy Local USDA	Project Lead Alisson Czapp alisson@nurturenaturecenter.org (610) 253-4190	http://www.lvfreshfoodbucks.org
Lemontree	Municipal	New York, NY	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	Lemontree is a non-profit that sells and delivers dignified, affordable, and healthy meal kits for $3 per serving. Eligible families are able to order food by text message, pickup their packages at local distribution sites, and cook the meals themselves using easy-to-use recipe cards.	Gibson Dunn Project X Stroock	CEO Alex Godin alex@lemontreefoods.org	http://lemontreefoods.org/
Live Well Community Market Program	Municipal	San Diego, CA	Consumer education Nutrition assistance program	Urban	The Live Well Community Market Program improves and promotes access to affordable healthy foods in San Diego County by working with small neighborhood markets to increase the availability of fresh produce inventory, redesign spaces to promote healthier options, and connect with community stakeholders to build a better food environment for all people in San Diego.	University of California, San Diego Center for Community Health County of San Diego, Health & Human Services Agency	Director of Urban Food Environments Elle Mari emari@ucsd.edu (619) 681-0655	https://ucsdcommunityhealth.org/work/live-well-community-market-program/

Lost River Market and Deli	Municipal	Paoli, IN	Cooperatively owned Farm share program	Urban	The Lost River Market and Deli is part of a larger member-owned association that is dedicated to serving the needs of local growers and consumers by providing goods, services, and healthy food choices at a fair value. In addition to their physical and online stores, they also offer a farm share program that allows consumers to receive weekly boxes from some of the producers within their network.	Orange County Cooperative Development Corporation	Community Engagement Director Jodee Ellett ellett@iu.edu  (812) 855-8119	https://www.lostrivermarketanddeli.com/
Mandala Grocery	Municipal	Oakland, CA	Cooperatively owned Nutrition education	Urban	The Mandala Grocery is a co-op that seeks to strengthen and diversify the local Oakland economy by providing access to healthy foods and wellness resources.	N/A	member@mandalagrocery.coop  (510) 452-1133	https://www.mandalagrocery.coop
Mas Fresco	Municipal	Southern California, CA	Nutrition incentive program	Urban	The ¡Más Fresco! More Fresh Program rewards CalFresh participants for purchasing fruits and vegetables by providing financial incentives that can be used to purchase additional fruits and vegetables. The research goals of this program are, first, to increase the purchase and consumption of fruits and vegetables among CalFresh participants and, secondarily, evaluate the effect of financial incentives on the purchase and consumption of fruits and vegetables.	USDA UCSD Center for Community Health Northgate Gonzalez Market	Senior Director Joe Prickitt  jprickitt@ucsd.edu	https://ucsdcommunityhealth.org/work/morefresh/
Meadville Market House	Municipal	Meadville, PA	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	In addition to their physical storefront, the Meadville Market House also operates a bus that sells locally grown, fresh foods to rural communities with limited access to fruits and vegetables. The Mobile Market, which was piloted in 2017 as a part of Allegheny College's Community Wellness Initiative, runs all throughout the summer.	Meadville Market House	Lauren Zotea  lazotea@eriecountypa.gov  (814) 451-6548	https://www.meadvillemarkethouse.org/
Mobile Mercado	Municipal	San Antonio, TX	Farm share program	Urban	Mobile Mercado is a mobile mini grocery store, farmers' market, demonstration kitchen, and teaching tool that improves access to healthy affordable foods and brings nutrition education to underserved San Antonio communities.	San Antonio Food Bank	Director of Nutrition Dr. Luz-Myruam Neira  lneira@safoodbank.org  (210) 431-8358	https://safoodbank.org/social-enterprises/mobile-mercado/
Mom's Fresh Foods	State-wide	CA OK	Nutrition assistance program	Mostly urban	Mom's Fresh Foods leverages its core mission of operating stores serving WIC families to provide fresh fruits and vegetables and other healthy foods to everyone living in the underserved areas and food deserts where their stores are located.	N/A	Michael Amiri  michael@momsfresh.com	http://www.momsfresh.com/

New Haven Farms	Municipal	New Haven, CT	Farm share program	Urban	New Haven Farms is a nonprofit organization that seeks to promote health and community development through urban agriculture. Their CSA pulls in food that is grown exclusively in the city of New Haven. In addition to their farm share program, New Haven Farms also hosts a weekly farm stand that features fresh produce that is grown organically at their urban sites, helping make nutritious foods more available in the neighborhoods in which they are grown. At these markets, a 50% discount is available for all SNAP, WIC, and SFMNP benefits.	New Haven Farms New England Land Trust	Executive Director Jacqueline Maisonpierre info@newhavenfarm.s.org https://www.newhavenfarms.org/
One Acre Farm Farm/Hospital Partnership Program	Municipal	Shady Grove, MD	Farm share program Farm stand	Urban	One Acre Farm is a 34-acre farm located in Montgomery County’s Agricultural Reserve. The farm is intent on creating close-knit communities around food while also exercising sustainable growing methods and practices. The Farm/Hospital Partnership, specifically—a joint venture between One Acre Farm and Adventist Healthcare Group—aims to improve the wellbeing of local healthcare employees by offering hospital workers incentives to purchase fresh produce through a subsidized farmers market. The program operates from June through until November, with employees receiving 75, 50, or 25% markdowns depending on the salary bracket they fall into, with those falling in the lowest bracket receiving the highest discount rate. Importantly, the hospital pays the difference, ensuring that the farm receives the full price for the produce sold.	Adventist Healthcare Group Montgomery County Economic Development Corporation	Farm Coordinator Charlotte Henderson charlotte@oneacrefarm.com (908) 463-2042 https://www.oneacrefarm.com/
Rolling Grocer 19	County-wide	Columbia County, NY	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Rural	Rolling Grocer 19 is a mobile market operating in Columbia County in New York that uses a 3-tiered pricing system to improve community health by making food more readily available. It provides a fair and convenient way to purchase food year-round.	Berkshire Taconic Community Foundation Hathorne Valley Association Long Table Harvest	Anna Duhon anna@hawthornevalleyfarm.org https://www.rollinggrocer19.org/
Roving Radish	County-wide	Howard County, MD	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	Roving Radish promotes healthy farm-to-table eating habits through the operation of a sustainable market that procures food from local Howard County farms. In particular, meal kits are made available to anyone who works or lives in Howard County, with discounted prices made available for those in need.	Horizon Foundation United Way Howard County General Hospital	Sustainability Projects Manager James Zoller jzoller@howardcountymd.gov (410) 992-2049 https://www.rovingradish.com/

Rural Grocery Initiative	State-wide	KA	Nutrition education	Rural	The Rural Grocery Initiative is a program hosted within the Center for Engagement and Community Development at Kansas State University. The program's mission is to provide resources to help sustain and enhance independently owned rural grocery stores and improve healthy food access.	Kansas State University	Program Manager Rial Carver rtcarver@ksu.edu	https://www.ruralgrocery.org/
Sankofa Initiative	Municipal	Providence, RI	Community garden Farm stand Nutrition education	Urban	A local food outlet, community garden, farmers market and community kitchen with the mission to build a community around food and culture in Providence's West End.	N/A	rcrosby@westelmwood.org	http://www.westelmwoodhdc.org/sankofa/
Shop Smart, Eat Smart	State-wide	VA	Nutrition assistance program	N/A	The Shop Smart, Eat Smart initiative is a SNAP-Ed program that seeks to highlight healthy items in stores so consumers can more easily locate them at their local outlets.	Virginia Cooperative Extension	Healthy Food Retail Coordinator Liza Dobson liza7@vt.edu	https://eatsmartmove.moreva.org/shop/shop-smart-eat-smart/
Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Network Farmers Markets	Municipal	Erie, PA	Farm stand Community garden Nutrition assistance program	Urban	The Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Network owns and operates several community gardens on previously disused lots. At certain times of the year, they hire local teens to work in the garden and supply a farm stand for the community all summer, where self-funded SNAP doubling is available for eligible recipients.	Sisters of St. Joseph Neighborhood Network	Gretchen Durney gdurney@ssjnn.org (814) 454-7814	http://www.ssjnn.org/news/little-italy-farmers-market-begins-june-25th
Tenderloin Healthy Corner Store Coalition (THCSC)	Municipal	San Francisco, CA	Nutrition education Social justice-affiliated	Urban	The THCSC is a program that empowers youth and resident leaders to advocate for food justice issues for the communities in which they live. It supports activities by Tenderloin residents that increase access and availability to healthy and fresh foods.	Healthy Tenderloin San Francisco Foundation UC Berkeley School of Public Health The California Endowment	Co-coordinator Ryan Thayer rthayer@healthytlo.org	http://www.healthytlo.org/

The Campus Kitchen at Gettysburg College	Municipal	Gettysburg, PA	Nutrition education Culinary training program Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Campus Kitchen rescues prepared food that has not been served, repackages and combines it with additional foods procured through food drives, local farmers and the food bank, resulting in a well-balanced, nutritious meal. Congregate and individual meals are then delivered through partner agencies on a weekly basis. The delivery is accompanied by a visit, strengthening relationships in the community.	Gettysburg College	Coordinator Tammy Hoff campuskitchen@gettysburg.edu (717) 337-6490 http://www.gettysburg.edu/campuskitchen
The Gleaning Project	County-wide	Adams and Franklin Counties, PA	Food recovery	Urban	The Gleaning Project is a collaborative, nonprofit effort to reduce food loss on local farms and increase food security by harvesting in local fields and picking up excess from packinghouses and markets. The fresh produce is then distributed to over 120 community partners.	South Central Community Action Programs	Coordinator Lizzy Cooper thegleaningproject@gmail.com (717) 884-8373 https://thegleaningproject.org/
The Hunger Coalition	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Nutrition education Farm stand	Rural	The Hunger Coalition builds a healthy community through access to good food and addresses the root causes of food insecurity in collaboration with key partners.	N/A	Executive Director Jeanne Liston jliston@thehungercoalition.org (208) 788-0121 https://thehungercoalition.org/
The Oasis Market	Municipal	Erie, PA	Nutrition education Farm stand	Urban	The Oasis Market is a retail outlet selling local food and crafts in downtown Erie, a food desert.	The Oasis Project Erie Food Policy Advisory Council	Lauren Zotea lazotea@eriecountypa.gov (814) 451-6548 https://www.theoasisproject.us/
The Painted Turtle Farm	Municipal	Gettysburg, PA	Social justice-oriented Farm share program Community garden	Urban	The Painted Turtle Farm at Gettysburg College is a campus community hub for food justice. It offers 30 plots to immigrant families and a 25-member CSA. Students and families work together to deliver the CSA with profits enabling families to grow at no charge.	Gettysburg College	Kim Davidson farm@gettysburg.edu (717) 337-6490 www.gettysburg.edu/paintedturtlefarm

The Somerville Mobile Farmers' Market	Municipal	Somerville, MA	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Somerville Mobile Farmers' Market sells fresh, local produce in Somerville, MA. They offer an unlimited 50% discount for residents of North Street or Mystic Housing, as well as for recipients able to present SNAP, WIC, or Senior Farmers' Market benefits.	Council on Aging East Somerville Community School Shape Up Sommerville	(617) 625-0660 ext. 4321	http://bit.ly/tsmfm
Twin Cities Mobile Market	Municipal	Saint Paul, MN	Mobile delivery and pop-up	Urban	The Twin Cities Mobile Market brings affordable and fresh produce directly into neighborhoods around Saint Paul and Minneapolis with limited access to full-service supermarkets, grocery stores, or food shelves.	Wilder Foundation	Executive Services Director Jennifer Thao tcmobilemarket@wilder.org (651) 280-2343	https://www.wilder.org/what-we-offer/twin-cities-mobile-market
Veggie Prescription (Rx) and Van Programs	Municipal	Waco, TX	Mobile delivery and pop-up Nutrition assistance program	Urban	The Veggie Van is a delivery service that provides produce from the Fresh Produce Prescription (Rx) program to underserved Waco communities in partnership with the Waco Family Health Center.	World Hunger Relief	Executive Director Jonathan Grant (254) 799-5611	http://www.worldhungerrelief.org/veggie-van/
Veggie Rx	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Community garden Mobile delivery and pop-up	Rural	The Hunger Coalition and St. Luke's Wood River piloted Veggie Rx: Prescription for Health in response to the prevalence of diabetes and food insecurity in Blaine County. Veggie Rx reduces the economic barriers to fresh produce by providing fresh vegetables at no cost for 12 weeks to food-insecure patients diagnosed with diabetes.	The Hunger Coalition	Development & Program Supervisor Krista Felton kfelton@thehungercoalition.org (208) 788-0121	https://thehungercoalition.org/
Veggie Van	Municipal	Lynchburg, VA	Mobile delivery and pop-up Farm share program	Urban	The Veggie Van is a program of Lynchburg Grows—an organization that works with communities to provide access to healthy food and purposeful jobs. They host a successful farm share program but have also taken to mobile delivery through their van, which stops at 10 different Lynchburg locations where residents are challenged in accessing fresh produce.	Lynchburg Grows	Farm Manager and Executive Director Shelley Blades (434) 846-5655	https://www.lyncburggrows.org/
Village Market	Municipal	Portland, OR	Farm stand Nutrition assistance program	Urban	The Village Market is grocery in New Columbia, Oregon's largest affordable housing neighborhood. The market provides discounts and incentives for good, fresh food and seasonally stocks shelves with produce grown by gardens and orchards in the neighborhood.	Village Gardens	Program Director Kris Soebroto ksoebroto@janusyouth.org (503) 934-5630	www.villagegardens.org

Volunteer for Veggies	County-wide	Blaine County, ID	Farm share program	Rural	Volunteer for Veggies provides access to fresh, healthy food for everyone in the community. Volunteers take home a share of the farm's freshest, nutrient richest, most delicious fruits and veggies around in exchange for their time at Bloom Community Farm or The Hope Garden.	The Hunger Coalition	Food Production Manager Lynea Petty lpetty@thehungercoalition.org (208) 788-0121	https://thehungercoalition.org/community/farm-garden/
Wild Harvest Table	State-wide	NY	Technology-assisted		Wild Harvest Table is a program that brings wild-caught fish and hunted meats to rural food banks. A complementary online resource was started by Cornell Cooperative Extension to provide information on the healthy ways to prepare wild game and fish meat, discuss food safety and conservation issues, and provide nutrition information.	Cornell Cooperative Extension of Seneca County	Nutrition Issue Leader Moira Tidball mmt65@cornell.edu (315) 539-9251	www.wildharvesttable.com
Wildflower Grocer	Municipal	O'Neill, NE	Farm stand		Wildflower Grocer is an indoor farmers market and community space that connects buyers to growers and vice versa. More recently, the organization has added a community kitchen that is used to preserve foods coming in from the field and provide culinary and nutrition education to interested citizens.	N/A	info@wildflowergrocer.com (402) 336-8988	https://www.wildflowergrocer.com/
Wimbledon Community Grocery and Café	County-wide	Barnes, Stutsman, and Foster Counties, ND	Farm stand	Urban	The Wimbledon Community Grocery and Café is a community owned 501(c)3 non-profit that operates as the sole full-service rural grocery in Barnes, Stutsman, and Foster counties.	Closing the Health Gap	wgrocery@daktel.com (701) 435-2464	https://wimbledonnd.com/directory/wimbledon-community-grocery/